October is Domestic Violence Awareness Month.

On October 19th, the 12th Annual Men's March Against Violence will begin at NOON at the Queen Liliuokalani statue (behind the State Capitol) to the Sky Gate Park on the grounds of City Hall, where a rally will follow at 12:30 p.m.

Men and boys from the community are invited to participate in the march and everyone is welcome to attend the rally. Joe Bloom, Catholic Charities Hawaii Therapeutic Services program director and founder of the Men's March Against Violence, will be honored as Distinguished Citizen of the Year.

The Men's March Against Violence, sponsored by Catholic Charities Hawaii and the Domestic Violence Clearinghouse and Legal Hotline, is a unique and effective way for men to speak out against domestic violence and increase public awareness of this critical issue in Hawaii.

For more information, please call (808) 521-4357.

Also, on October 25th, there will be a candlelight vigil for domestic violence at St. Andrew's Cathedral, beginning at dusk.
